Added to this total is the $7,000 owing to B. F. Dillingham and secured by the hundred shares of Kihel, which are said to be worth $775. The total debts therefore reach $41,326.92.

The statements of property are all contain the word "none." There is no cash on hand, real estate, stocks or anything else except $300 worth of wearing apparel, which of course is not to be touched by creditors.

KINAU SIGHTED A BIG STEAMER

AND SAW A SAILING SHIP BECALMED TODAY—ARRIVED EARLY TO GO ON MARINE RAILWAY.

The steamer Kinau arrived at 9:15 o'clock this morning from her run to Hilo and way ports. She arrived earlier than usual as Captain Freeman wanted to get his vessel in port as soon as possible in order that she could go on the marine railway promptly for a cleaning. She brought a large assortment of freight and a fair-sized crowd of passengers.

Captain Freeman reports having sighted a large steamer yesterday in the Hawaii channel bound north. The steamer was evidently a Newcastle tramp or else a steamer from one of the guano islands. A full rigged ship was sighted this morning off Oahu becalmed.

James Dougherty returned from a business trip to Maui and Hawaii. He was absent some weeks.

C. A. Graham returned from a business trip to the Big Island.

Gus Rose of the Treasurer's Department returned from a trip to Maui.

John Richardson, Jr., was an arriving Maui passenger.

A. A. Bragmar came back from a trip to the other islands.

J. A. Kennedy, the president and general manager of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company, returned from Maui whither he went by the steamer Claudine last night.

Miss Mae Weil returned from a vacation trip to the other islands.

THE MENEHUNES.

Mrs. Day's charming little book The Menehunes, has reached here just in time for Christmas and there is no doubt that it will have a very large sale. The story is a Hawaiian fairy tale, will please children very much. It is written in a style that children can readily understand and is interesting from the first to the last page. The story has a decided Hawaiian atmosphere, the koa tree "whose leaves were shaped like the new moon," the one with the cloak and helmet of fine yellow feathers, "the canoe builder, Laka; the calabash, "the meager supper of poi and dried fish," the southern cross, Aloha and Aloha Nui, all ring so true, and seem so much a part of Hawaii.

The little book is bound in a tapa cover and is profusely illustrated. It will make a capital gift to send away, especially to a child who has lived in Hawaii.

business of a wholesale liquor dealer in Honolulu, in competition with W. C. Peacock & Co., Ltd.; and that the said Peacock desires access to and the control and custody of the store, premises, stock in trade, office, books, papers, minutes, accounts, effects and assets of the company solely for the purpose of acquiring information which would be useful to him in the conduct of a rival wholesale liquor business and to enable him to act hostilely and detrimentally to the business of W. C. Peacock & Company Ltd.

Rothwell's affidavit contains the following:

"And affiant further states that about September 1 1905, he was informed by T. F. Lansing and others among whom were the managers and employees of competing houses that the said W. C. Peacock was talking of starting a rival company in competition with W. C. Peacock & Co., Ltd., and these statements together with the fact that said W. C. Peacock was taking copies of foreign and domestic invoices of the company and was examining the detailed accounts of the customers of W. C. Peacock & Company convinced affiant that the said W. C. Peacock was buying himself entirely in the collection of such data as would be useful to himself in starting a business in direct competition to W. C. Peacock & Co., Ltd., although he was then the president and director."

It is alleged by Rothwell that for a number of months Peacock spent his entire time from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. on an evening and Sundays in copying invoices and personal accounts from the books, with Auerbach. On September 15, Rothwell notified Peacock of the adoption of the following resolution by the directors:

"Whereas Mr. W. C. Peacock, one of the stockholders of this company has on several occasions stated his determination to start a rival business to that of this company and otherwise injure this company:

"Resolved, That the manager of the company and the officers in charge of the office of the company are hereby directed to exclude Mr. W. C. Peacock and his representatives from this office, and to deny them access to any books and papers of the company, unless by special permission of the board of directors."

The respondents all make affidavit denying that they are about to transfer 550 shares of the company to Bishop and Company, as alleged by Peacock. In furtherance of a plan to turn over the business to Bishop. An affidavit by E. A. Mott-Smith relates a conversation with Peacock in which the latter said that rather than start a company, he would wreck the company, lose all his investment and start over again with ten cents. Bottomly also tells of Peacock's intention to start a rival company. Peacock is said to have stated that he had $100,000 backing and could do up the company. Bottomly suggested that if he had $100,000, he should put it in Peacock and Company and resume management, to which Peacock is alleged to have replied "Not on your life."

STEAM ROLLER ON RAMPAGE

GOT AWAY ON VICTORIA STREET THIS MORNING AND PLAYED HAVOC TO BACK-YARDS.

There was an automobile runaway of gigantic proportions this morning. It was a runaway where only a Titan should have been the chauffeur. The machine was the property of the government however, and was being used for street rolling purposes. It had been at work at the head of Victoria street. This morning the machine got started down the hill and when the Portuguese chauffeur saw that the machine was gaining impetus and the machinery that was supposed to reverse the thing, were dormant, he did what seemed to him to be the wisest thing. He jumped off and the machine went hurrying onward in its career of destruction.

The machine got diverted from the straight and narrow path and went reeling over to the Waikiki side where it ran into the curb and proceeded to play havoc with the curbing in front of F. W. Lowrey's place. Then it got kipped off from that side of the street and went careering on until it saw the backyard of H. F. Wichman. The machine bounded over the curb, through the hedge and was heading toward the barn with the certain prospects of going clean through the premises when a stout tree that happened to be in the path arrested the course of the runaway.

LIKELIKE DUE TOMORROW.

The steamer Likelike is due tomorrow morning from Molokai, Maui and Lanai ports. She was held a day at Maui in order to bring to Honolulu the members of the Baldwin funeral party.

LODGE LE PROGRES IS NO MORE

There was a large attendance of members who had taken limits for the purpose of constituting "Oceanic Lodge, No. 371." Brother E. I. Spalding of "Hawaiian No. 21" as acting inspector for the Grand Lodge of California conducted the institution of the new lodge, assisted by Brothers Rothwell, Lewis, Hall, Vettesen, Hare and Thompson, all of "Hawaiian." The lodge having been constituted, the new officers of "Oceanic" were installed by Acting Inspector Spalding assisted by Bro. C. M. White as marshal. They are as follows:

W. M., C. G. Buckus; S. W., Charles Bon; J. W., M. M. Johnson; Treasurer L. de L. Ward; Secretary F. Waldron; Chaplain H. T. Moore; Marshal, J. R. Collins; S. D., C. G. Bartlett; J. D., Edgar M. Brown; S. S., R. H. Bemrose; J. S., C. W. Lee; Tyler, C. H. Thurston.

After the installation a banquet was held, the whole affair passing off most pleasantly.

There are now six lodges existent in the Territory, though one, Le Progres is actually, though not officially, dead. Of the five remaining "Hawaiian" "Oceanic" and "Kilauea" of Hilo are under the California jurisdiction while "Paeia" and "Maui" are under the Scottish jurisdiction.

The two latter were formed years ago and there is said by some members of the order to be a movement in favor of bringing both of these lodges under the California jurisdiction though some cling to the senior organization despite the distance from the parent body.

HONORS TO THE EX-SUPERINTENDENT

BOARD OF EDUCATION ADOPTS A RESOLUTION COMPLEMENTING JAMES C. DAVIS.

The Board of Education held its first meeting with Superintendent Babbitt yesterday afternoon. The following resolution, presented by Commissioner Al and seconded by Farrington, was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, Mr. James C. Davis has tendered his resignation as Superintendent of Public Instruction, and the same has been accepted, the Commissioners of Public Instruction take this occasion to express their regret at the severance of the official relations heretofore existing, and to testify to the sentiments of respect and esteem with which they regard the late head of the department.

"During his brief incumbency as Superintendent, Mr. Davis has shown himself to be diligent, conscientious and devoted to the interests of the public schools of the Territory.

"His uniform kindness and courtesy toward his colleagues, and his readiness to facilitate by all means in his power the business of the department will be ever remembered by us with pleasure and satisfaction.

"The Commissioners venture to express the hope that the connection of Mr. Davis with the schools of the Territory will not be terminated by the recent change, but that he may continue to serve the cause of popular education in some other capacity."

It was voted to offer the retiring superintendent the principals of the Molokai school, with two assistants.

The board also acted favorably on the following recommendations of the Teachers' Committee.

That Miss Mary Kala, principal of Poikoi, be granted leave of absence not more than three months and that salary warrant be delivered here in Honolulu as per request.

That Miss Emma Aki be appointed in place of Miss Mary Kala at a salary of $25 a month that Miss Catherine Trowbridge be appointed to position of additional teacher at Olaa—$9-mile-at $35 a month. Appointment of D. P. Kapewa, assistant Hana school, at salary of $35. Recommend additional room at Kihel and additional teacher at salary of $30. Mrs. B. K. Hofgaard to be principal at salary of $55. Mrs. Weil to be appointed assistant at Molokai on completion of new room; salary $44. Resignation of Mrs. Jane Minton, assistant Pohukaina, accepted. Approve Miss Cameron's promotion to place made vacant by Mrs. Minton's resignation. That Miss Carrie Claypool be granted leave of absence—November 3 to December 22.

That Miss Lillian Claypool be appointed substitute during Miss Carrie Claypool's leave of absence. Miss Reid's transfer from Punene to Kilauea, C. Wilcox's appointment of school agent in Koloa, vice McBryde, resigned.

The application of H. M. Coke of Maui for a life certificate was deferred to a later meeting. Applications were presented by the Superintendent of various persons who have asked for the principals of the Wailua school, Maui, in place of H. M. Coke. Babbitt said he had no knowledge that the incumbent was to resign.

The Hilo High School building plans were taken up. Some modified plans for arrangements of the school rooms had been received from Principal Richmond. On motion these were ordered sent to the Public Works Department. Farrington stated that members of the board were not very enthusiastic over the style of architecture decided upon for the school.

A petition from a Puna Japanese, asking that certificates be given him showing the Hawaiian birth of two children, has been received at the secretary's office.

United States Commissioner Mailing this morning took the deposition of the plaintiff in one of the libels brought against the Mongolia by passengers left behind.

DOUBLE CRIME IN IWILEI

JAPANESE NAMED SHIRAIISHI PUTS THREE BULLETS INTO HIS WIFE ASANO AND THEN SHOOT HIMSELF THROUGH THE NECK—BOTH WILL PROBABLY DIE BUT THE WOMAN HAS THE BEST CHANCE FOR LIFE—CAUSE OF THE CRIME.

A double crime, which will probably yet be classed as a murder and a suicide, was committed shortly after 11 o'clock this morning in Iwilei, a Japanese named Shiraiishi firing three shots into the body of his wife Asano and then putting a bullet into himself. Both were taken shortly afterwards to the Japanese Hospital and both will probably die. The woman has a bullet hole in the back and a hasty diagnosis seemed to indicate that the missile had lodged in her lungs. Another bullet had gone through her right arm and the third was in her shoulder.

The man's one wound was the more serious for it was right through his throat and probably injured the jugular vein.

The shooting occurred in the fourth house on the Ewa side of the Iwilei road beyond the jail. There was no actual witness to the shooting but the meager details which could be extracted from the many Japanese who huddle together in that delectable locality would indicate that the man had consumed sake freely last night on the occasion of his national holiday and this morning discovered that his money was gone. He quarrelled with the woman about it, that much was overheard by neighbors, for only planks separate the apartments, and then the shots rang out.

The woman Asano, wounded as she was, ran out of the back door and along the yard to the place occupied by her sister Hanaguchi, the first shack in the row. There she fell unconscious on the floor.

Shiraiishi apparently thinking that his work was done satisfactorily, went out into the yard, put a bullet through his throat and fell on his back. The pistol which was of 32 calibre, remained gripped in his hand.

The neighboring Japanese thoroughly frightened sent a message to the jail where High Sheriff Henry resides. He assumed charge of the case, taking some letters which he found and also the pistol. The blood stained clothing of the wounded woman was for some unknown reason left behind but was afterwards secured and turned over to Sheriff Brown.

The patrol wagon was sent to the scene but Henry refused to turn over the evidence he had secured to Assistant Sheriff Vida who was in charge of the case.

Takawa, a Japanese who lives near the scene said that he heard the shooting and found Shiraiishi lying on his back with a bullet through his throat. Neither he nor anyone else had seen the shooting. He had heard the man say that his "wahine" had spent his money and had heard them quarrelling. He asserted that the man had been drinking but that the woman did not like drink of any kind.

There is of course little reason to suppose that the man and his victim were any different in the point of their morals from the remainder of the people in the immediate neighborhood. They came here from Japan five years ago and the man worked in a Japanese store for a time. For some time past however he has not worked.
